

Commander, Washington, DC

Advertisement

The District of Columbia, Department of Real Estate Services (DRES) is seeking an experienced Commander to join our Protective Services Division (PSD). PSD is responsible for the protection of life and property; the prevention, detection, investigation and reporting of crime or criminal activity; enforcement of civil and criminal laws, rules and regulations; ensuring security at District leased and owned property and facilities; and preserving the peace. Similarly, PSD is responsible for providing emergency response and managing security guard forces deployed at various District facilities located throughout the District of Columbia.

The Commander is responsible for the coordination, supervision and evaluation of the work of subordinate personnel by reviewing results achieved and ensuring conformance to performance standards; conducting investigations as directed by superior officers; assisting in the management of PSD's budget by actively monitoring and maintaining personnel, equipment, and operating expenditures within established limits; developing, implementing, and evaluating programs and/or projects; conducting research; and preparing reports pertinent to these programs and/or projects.

The successful candidate must have a Bachelor's degree, at least five (5) years of prior executive-level supervisory law enforcement experience in the rank of Lieutenant or above, and successful completion of a Certified Law Enforcement Academy.

How to apply

Please visit <http://www.dcop.dc.gov/dcop/cwp/view.a.1222.q.530365.dcopNav.1316561.asp> and click on Current Employment Opportunities and search for Job Requisition 15219. Applicants must submit a completed application, including responding to the ranking factors, in order to be considered for the position.

EEO Employer